INTRODUCTION

FIRST of all, we would like to thank the Badminton World Federation for trusting Indonesia to host the 2017 Blibli.com Yonex Sunrise BWF World Junior Championships, which will be held at Among Rogo Arena of the Special Region of Yogyakarta October 9-22.

It is a great honor for Indonesia to host countless prestigious badminton events, including Thomas and Uber Cup, BWF World Championships, Sudirman Cup, and the annual Indonesia Open Superseries Premier.

Hosting the 2017 Blibli.com Yonex Sunrise BWF World Junior Championships is a major boost for the development of Yogyakarta, one of Indonesia's top tourism destinations among local and foreign visitors.

We hope the participating athletes would enjoy their time in Yogyakarta, not just by joining the competition but also visiting numerous tourism objects across the city, including precious historical sites.

Preparation is underway to welcome all participating young athletes from across the globe.

It will be the third time for Among Rogo Arena to host such international badminton events, as the 2013 Indonesia Open Grand Prix Gold and 2015 Jaya Raya Junior International Grand Prix were also competed at the prestigious venue.

Below is some useful information for guests:

- Among Rogo Arena offers 8 competition courts, 4 warming-up courts, 9 training courts, and athletes lounge.
- Free transportation for athletes and officials from

Adi Sucipto International Airport of Yogyakarta to official hotels; Royal Ambarukmo Hotel, Yogyakarta Plaza Hotel, dan The Victoria Hotel.

- Shuttle bus services from hotels to competition venue.
- Coaching clinic from October 18 to 19.
- Welcome dinner at historical Hindu Temple of Prambanan

We hope all participants and guests of the 2017 Blibli.com Yonex Sunrise BWF World Junior Championships would enjoy their visit and get unforgettable moments in Yogyakarta.

CULTURAL DAY & WELCOME DINNER

century under the leadership of two ancient Javanese Kings, Rakai Pikatan and Rakai Balitung.

The Cultural Day activities will start at 3.00 pm where participants and guests will be touring the temple compound to enjoy the beauty of the site.

Visitors will also be provided with information of cultural heritages of Yogyakarta –such as the art of making batik, painting wayang (traditional Javanese puppets), traditional music instruments and dances- at various booths during the event.

Favorite dishes of Yogyakarta, such as Javanese style fried noodle, klatak satay (mutton satay) and gudeg which is made from young unripe jack fruit boiled with other ingredients, will also be served to honor guests.

While enjoying the traditional dishes, guests will be entertained with contemporary dance of Pragina Gong.

The cultural day and welcome dinner will be joined by Sri Sultan Hamengkubuwono X, the ruling Sultan of the historic Yogyakarta Sultanate and the City Governor.

GENERAL INFORMATION

SRI SULTAN HAMENKUBUWONO X, LEADER OF YOGYAKARTA.

YOGYAKARTA, PARADISE OF THE TRAVELERS

THERE are two tourist destinations that become the favorite of foreign tourists who visit Indonesia. In addition to the Bali Island, one other tourist destination is the Special Region of Yogyakarta.

Yogyakarta is indeed a special area. Unlike other provinces of Indonesia led by a Governor, the Special Region of Yogyakarta is led by a Sultan or King.

Several hundred years ago Yogyakarta was indeed a kingdom. However, when the Republic of Indonesia became independent on August 17, 1945, Yogyakarta became part of the Indonesian state.

The legacy still seen today Sultan Hamengkubuwono X, the head of Yogyakarta Special Region is still settled in the Palace or Kraton which is a relic of ancient times.

Now, the Palace or Kraton of Yogyakarta became one of the attractions that must be visited by foreign tourists who want to know the history of the founding of the Special Region of Yogyakarta.

Yogyakarta, located in the middle of Java Island is very easy to be visited by domestic and foreign tourists. Cultural wealth and very kind of the people are characteristic of Yogyakarta.

The people who have come to Yogyakarta usually never get bored to come back again for the next time.

WHAT'S IN YOGYAKARTA?

1. MALIOBORO STREET

If you've been to Barcelona, you know Las Ramblas. The name of a street that is so legendary a tourist destination when to Spain. Similarly, if you go to Yogyakarta, then have to visit Malioboro Street. Along the road is 3 km away provides a variety of typical Yogyakarta souvenirs. Malioboro Street will be more fun at night while enjoying traditional food sold along the way.

2. GUDEG

Typical food named Gudeg became very synonymous with Yogyakarta. The main ingredient of the maker is a young jackfruit. Boiled to reddish. The sweet taste is characteristic of Gudeg. Usually, Gudeg served with white rice which is the staple food of Indonesian society. Gudeg usually comes with eggs and fried chicken.

3. BATIK

Batik is a typical clothing of the people of Yogyakarta. Before becoming a beautiful shirt, the process of making it begins with a white cloth painted with canting. The coloring material is usually called 'malam' or candle. The process of painting white cloth with various motifs is what is commonly called batik. Batik has always been a tourist choice as a souvenir.

4. TRADITIONAL DANCE

Almost all regions in Indonesia have typical dances. Similarly Yogyakarta is very famous with Ramayana Dance. This dance is always served at important events, especially to welcome guests from abroad who come to Yogyakarta.
